

DENIM DAYS

More than 3.5 million breast cancer survivors are living in the US today.

Breast cancer can make anyone feel alone. But we have the passion to make sure no one on that journey is alone. American Cancer Society Denim Days brings people together to help save lives from breast cancer. Thanks in part to the American Cancer Society and improvements in cancer research, treatment, and early detection, breast cancer death rates have dramatically declined between 1989 and 2015.

YOUR DONATION HELPS MILLIONS

- More than 3.5 million breast cancer survivors are living in the US today.
- In the United States, an estimated 266,120 women are expected to be newly diagnosed with breast cancer, and 40,920 women are expected to die from the disease this year.
- Mortality rates from breast cancer have dropped 39% among women between 1989 and 2015. That's 322,600 fewer deaths from the disease during that time.

YOUR DONATIONS AT WORK

Your contributions help the American Cancer Society save lives from breast cancer by:

- Investing in groundbreaking breast cancer research to better understand, prevent, find, and treat the disease
- Providing free, comprehensive information and support to those touched by breast cancer when and where they need it
- Helping people take steps to reduce their breast cancer risk or find it early when it's most treatable
